Ken Akin, a resident on Mary Ann Lane, addressed the board about a camper trailer setting up permanent living on Mary Ann Lane. He said that, it was creating a traffic hazard on the already narrow street. He proceeded to inquire if there were any ordinances or restrictions on camper trailers setting up permanent living in the city.

Mr. Akin was advised that the city would look in to what ordinances were on the books.

Jesse Wilkey, Bledsoe County Detective, informed the board in reference to the Daily Stop Market and Sunoco Station having drug paraphernalia and products available all over the counter by the cash register as well as questioning the legal amount of chemicals in the products they were selling along with the danger of using them. He inquired if the city could pass any kind of ordinance that would require the businesses to keep these items behind the counter and out of site.

Mr. Wilkey was asked to provide a list of the products to the attorney and he would check in to what if anything that the city would be able to do legally.
